ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welfare Baptist's Youth Explosion! is today @ 4 pm! Thank you in advance for supporting our youth!

Women United of the Anderson County United Way ask for your help donating items to our community's homeless and underserved populations whom the South Main Mercy Center provides assistance. These items include: 1) Sunscreen (SPF 50+), 2) deodorant (men's, women's or unisex). Items can be placed in "United Way" labeled boxes located at the church's front and back entrances. Collections continue through the end of June. Thank you in advance for giving out of your abundance to those who have very little!

All aboard for the Soup Kitchen Ministry! This is the time we focus on Welfare's Annual Ministry for the needy by serving at Soup Kitchen, 306 W. Franklin St., Anderson, SC 29624. Each Saturday in June, different WBC ministries will prepare and serve food. Established group leaders will direct each group. If you aren't yet involved w/ a particular ministry, please provide your information to the church office so that a group coordinator can contact you about serving one Saturday in June. Thank you in advance for your help!

Rehearsal for the Rocky River Baptist Assoc.'s 100 Voice Youth Choir is Saturday, 9 Jun @ 9:30 am at Wilson Calvary Baptist Church, 1401 N Murray Ave, Anderson, SC 29625. Parents are asked to accompany and remain with their children during rehearsal unless a Welfare Youth advisor is present. Please contact Cathy Smith or LaTisha Willis by 6th of June if you need transportation assistance.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Anderson Free Clinic thanks Welfare for the $100 donation, further helping the clinic improve and expand services to "our community's uninsured, poverty-level households and families." Thank you!

The mothers of Welfare thank Pastor Anderson and the Welfare men for the Mother's Day roses and cards. We appreciate you recognizing our special day!
